The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, U.S. Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. The person using this equipment is responsible for any infringement.

Copying for Individual Use: Making a single copy of written material for use by an individual without further dissemination is permissible within limits.

The photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research."

Aims Community College reserve the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve a violation of copyright law.